

SPECIAL BULLETIN

O F F I C E O F T R A I N I N G

No. 31-63

22 August 1963

TO: Agency Training Officers

REGISTRATION FOR THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OFF-CAMPUS COURSES

The American University Division of General and Special Studies will offer three courses in the Off-Campus Program during the fall semester of the 1963-64 academic year.

19.302	Intermediate Economic Analysis: Income	Wednesdays
19.307	Introduction to Quantitative Economics	Thursdays
19.514	Income Analysis (1): Concepts and Basic Theory	Tuesdays

REGISTRATION: 13 September
1000-1200 hours
Room 4F-31
(A new registration card replacing student Master card IBM D18561 will be issued at time of registration)

TUITION : $72.00 ($24.00 per credit hour, payable at registration)

TIME : Classes will begin the week of 16 September and run 16 weeks. All classes will meet from 1710 to 1930 hours on days indicated above.

(more information on other side)

CLASSROOMS : All courses will be taught in Room 4F-31.

CREDIT : All courses carry three semester hours credit.

ENROLLMENT : Limited to overt Agency employees.

INSTRUCTORS : Agency employees engaged to teach by the university.

COUNSELING : Dr. W. Donald Bowles, Chairman of the Economics Department at AU, has already conducted counseling sessions, but additional appointments can be arranged, if needed, by contacting the OTR Registrar, extension 5513. Transcripts or other academic information should be brought to any counseling appointment.